LiveOn NY is a membership organization of nonprofit aging service providers that builds power and capacity at the city and state level to change public policy, grow resources, and strengthen services for older adults. Our work focuses on 1) policy and advocacy efforts that build budgetary and legislative support for older people and aging services, 2) education and training that bring replicable, successful and innovative models to the forefront and 3) direct outreach to older New Yorkers so that they have critical resources and knowledge about how to make ends meet and thrive in their later years.

At LiveOn NY, our mission is to make New York a better place to age. Founded in 1979, we began as a City organization dedicated to advocating for policy change to further the interests of senior centers and agencies. Today, we are at the forefront of shaping the future of aging by developing new ideas that take the form of advocacy, policy and program development. We don't just talk about making the future better for older adults. We are on the front lines, working to make change happen now. We turn compassion into action, reaching more and more people every day. All because of our passionate belief that every New Yorker should grow old the same way that they've always lived: like New Yorkers. senior housing, caregiving services, intergenerational programs, creative aging, long term care services, and case management. Together with our members, we reach roughly 500,000 older adults annually.

Accomplishments of 2019

In 2019, we've accomplished a historic state investment of $15 million towards in-home services for the elderly and a city investment of $10 million for senior center meals and kitchen staff. We provided educational opportunities to more than 600 professionals at our conference and trainings. In our Benefits program we assisted more than 3000 seniors with benefits and entitlements. Our outreach program reached hundreds of thousands of older adults, caregivers and professionals with access to resources about programs and benefits in their communities.

We're working to reframe aging as a positive life process that we're all embarking on, one that should be celebrated, invested in, and respected. We know that together, we can shift the way society views old age and our sector, and make New York a better place to age.

To our members, new and old, thank you for embarking on this journey with us, and believing in the value of our collective voice. You are what makes our successes possible, and we look forward to achieving much more in 2020 and beyond.
